

READING TOGETHER TIPS

How to get the most out of Emotional Weather books — discussion prompts and follow-up activities.

1 BEFORE YOU READ

Look at the cover together. What do you think this story might be about?

What feelings do you think we might see in this book?

2 DURING THE STORY

- Pause and ask questions.
- Name the feelings you see together.
- Make connections to your child's experiences.

How do you think they feel?

3 AFTER YOU READ

Talk about the story and the feelings in it.

- What was your favorite part?
- How did the characters feel?
- What would you do in that situation?

Let's talk about it!

4 USE FEELINGS WORDS

Help build a rich vocabulary by naming lots of different feelings.

proud

nervous

excited

lonely

frustrated

5 Make It Interactive

Ask your child what they think will happen, predict together, and invite their ideas.

What do you think will happen next?

6 EXTEND THE LEARNING

Use simple activities to keep the conversation going.

FUN FOLLOW-UP ACTIVITIES

DRAW IT

Draw your favorite part or a feeling from the story.

FEELINGS JAR

Collect feelings from the story and add them to your jar.

ACT IT OUT

Pretend to be a character and act out how they feel.

STORY CONNECT

Find ways the story connects to your life.

THANK YOU

End by sharing something you love or are grateful for.

Reading together builds connection, understanding, and emotional intelligence. Every story is a chance to grow together.
